

Checklist

Future Lawyers

Holiday Checklist

A checklist for aspiring solicitors with ideas to boost your applications and candidate potential during university holiday periods.

Checklist

Here are some suggestions for you to try out during the holidays ...

- Complete a forge virtual legal experience
- Enter a legal essay competition
- Give your LinkedIn a glow up
- Start an open university law related course
- Pay a visit to your local court and sit in
- Send out speculative letters for shadowing
- Sign up for a legal mentoring programme
- Make a legal IG page or create more content
- Increase your commercial awareness
- Draft some STARR answer examples
- Give your home study area a makeover
- Write a guest blog post for a legal website
- Take time out to reset your mind and body
- Download the FREE how to guides & resources on the scottish lawyer website

Checklist

Please note that this is a non-exhaustive list of the many opportunities that aspiring lawyers can take part in to boost their candidate potential.

But I would also like to highlight that these are just suggestions, I am not advocating that you should complete all of the items above. It is important that you do what is best for you, and take time for you during the holidays, make memories with friends and family, have days doing absolutely nothing and allow your body to reset and be restored for the next academic year or whatever your future plan may be!

Go for it, I believe in you !